1. Under the Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 anti-social behaviour is a matter for BCP and for the Police. However, everyone, including the Parish Council, has a moral duty to help.
2. The appropriate advice to anyone who is aware of an anti-social behaviour incident is to contact the Police on 101 or, in an emergency 999.
3. Anti-Social Behaviour covers a wide range of matters. This list is not exhaustive:
 - Drugs use
 - Drunkenness
 - Lewd Behaviour
 - Vandalism
 - Noisy Neighbours or Animals
 - Harassment
 - Environmental Offences
 - Hate Crime
4. The Parish Council will maintain an incident log of matters reported to it and will refer them to the appropriate authorities if and when a pattern emerges.
5. The Council's website will include an incident report form (see Appendix 1)
6. Under GDPR rules the personal details of anyone completing an incident report form will remain confidential to the Parish Clerk and the appropriate authority to whom the pattern is ultimately reported. Details will not be shared with Councillors.
